The Full Licensing Terms

All PLRstockPhoto.com members are legally bound by the following terms and conditions.

These terms of use have been put into place to protect our members. Please respect your fellow members and review and abide by these terms.

Violation of these terms is grounds for dismissal without notice or refund of pre-paid membership fees.

As A PLRstockPhoto.com Member You CAN:

- Use the content for any websites, blogs, ebooks, products, newsletters or email autoresponder courses that you own. If you do not maintain ownership of the website you may not continue to use the content.
- Distribute, giveaway or otherwise sell the special reports without modification. No attribution, credit or link back to PLRstockphoto.com is required.
- Modify the content in any way you'd like (by removing, adding, or otherwise re-wording) to suit your needs. This includes the freedom to combine articles or add your own content.
- Bundle the content into a free or paid ebook, product, or bonus for your customers.

Is The License Transferable?

The rights granted to you are non-transferable and non-sub licensable, meaning that you cannot transfer or sublicense the private label license to anyone else. There are two exceptions:

1. Employer or client. If you are purchasing on behalf of your employer or client, then your employer or client can use the content. In that case, you represent and warrant that you have full legal authority to bind your employer or client to the terms of this agreement. If you do not have that authority, then your employer or client may not use the content.

2. Subcontractors. You may allow subcontractors (for example, your printer or mailing house) or distributors to use content in any production or distribution process related to your final project or end use. These subcontractors and distributors may not use the content for any other purpose.

This means you cannot re-sell, re-package, give away, or copy any of the content for the purpose of allowing your customers to give away or sell the content as their own. In other words, your clients can purchase the branded material from you, but they cannot brand it or sell it to others.

Anyone found to violate these terms will have their membership cancelled immediately and without warning.
